

Everest Renjo La Pass Trek

Famous as a part of the longer Everest High Pass Trek, the Everest Renjo La Pass Trek sits as an alternative to the longer treks of the Everest Region. As the name suggests, this trek passes through not only the Renjo La Pass but also through one of the most picturesque valleys in the country, the Gokyo Valley.

Most of the trek in the Khumbu starts off with a flight to the Tenzing and Hilary Airport. While on a flight, be sure to bask in the views of the Eastern Himalayas. March towards the Sagarmatha National Park and then hike to the trading hub of the Khumbu Region, Namche Bazar. Altitude sickness is a health effect that can happen at high altitude so, a day off doesn't hurt much, right? During the day off, take a trip to the highest altitude hotel in the world, Everest View Hotel followed by an exploration of the photo gallery and cultural museum. Our path takes us to Dole and then towards Machhermo. Trek to the six lakes of Gokyo starting from the first one, 4690 meters, Longpongo Tso and then to Taboche Tso, Dudh Pokhari, Thonak Cho, and also the Gyazumpa Cho. Don't forget to explore the Soundrel's Viewpoint with one of the most scenic views of the four eight-thousanders and also the largest glacier of the country, Ngozumpa Glacier.

Now, it's time for our destination, Renjo La Pass which though is dusty and slippery, offers views of the Gyachung Kang, Makalu, Kusum Kanguru, Pumori, Lhotse, Nuptse, and also, the Everest. Drop down to Lungden then to Thame which eventually follows our trail back to Lukla and then onward departure.

Saturate yourself with the blue lakes of Gokyo and the strenuous yet, beautiful Renjo La Pass.
